

Matthews, Carter & Boyce Named Top 50 Accounting Firm in Washington Business Journal's 2012 Book of Lists

The firm has been named in the Book of Lists numerous times since its founding in 1947.

FAIRFAX, VA 2 FEB 12 – Matthews, Carter & Boyce (“MCB”), a boutique full-service accounting firm serving the Washington D.C. area since 1947, has been named #32 on Washington Business Journal's 2012 Top 50 Accounting Firms List.

MATTHEWS, CARTER & BOYCE
RESPECT. CONFIDENCE. TRUST.®

“MCB’s acknowledgement by the Washington Business Journal as a Top Accounting Firm provides our 10 Principals and 45 Staff Members with great pride. For a mid-market regional firm, we have a very sophisticated practice and client base, competing with national accounting firms in many industries. We have client relationships that have lasted more than 50 years. Our commitment to quality and personal service has kept our clients loyal for the past six decades. We focus on client needs and keep the practice strong by hiring and maintaining an excellent team of talented professionals,” says Jude J. Covas, Managing Principal.

The firm anticipates significant growth for 2012 in the following markets: Hotels, Closely Held Businesses, Investment Companies, Government Contractors and Non-Profit Organizations. We also expect to add 5 to 10 professionals.

MCB’s priority is to enhance the growth and success of each of our clients in every industry we serve. We respect our clients and work hard to earn your confidence as a trusted business advisor.

info@mcb-cpa.com

703.218.3600

www.mcb-cpa.com

Source: Matthews, Carter & Boyce